

DIVE KINGSTON

FRESHWATER DIVE CAPITAL OF THE WORLD

Dive one of the Freshwater Dive Capitals of the World!

Over the past two centuries over 400 wrecks have slipped beneath the surface of Lake Ontario.

Highlights of some of the best wrecks:

George T Davy

A well intact steel freighter built in 1898 and sank in 100 ft. The wreck sits on its starboard where the lifeboat and crane have come to rest.

Wolfe Islander II

Sits Upright in 80 ft. of water with the bow facing north.

The Comet

A steam driven side paddle wheeler.
