Dive the SS Wexford

TRIP DETAILS

Join us on the SS Wexford, a 250ft/76m steel-hulled cargo ship by built in 1883 that sank on November 9th, 1913 during the Great Lakes storm of 1913. There is plenty to see including boilers, anchors and windlass with lots of natural light penetrating the deck. This is an advanced dive (max depth: 80ft/24m) requiring a drysuit or a 7mm wetsuit, hood, and gloves. Flashlights and Nitrox certification are recommended for the best experience

Maximum of 8 divers, so book early!
